Unbreakable Heart

Sugababes

You might think I would know better than this by now
That I should be strong enough to resist somehow
Even letting myself wish is a risk, I know
To let go and to kiss is just asking for the blowYou might think I would see clearer this time around
Now I'm done doing payments for your crimes, I'm done
Then again, how can something this sublime be wrong
If you can't stand the fall then you better hold onThis is how it begins with a smile with an inch
Take a mile, then again, what's another little sin?If I walk through my whole life
Choosing the safe side and staying smart
(Don't you know)I'll miss out on the real thing it's all or it's nothing
That's why it hurts
(They go)
What good is an unbreakable heart?I'm not tryna tell you nothing 'bout right and wrong
It's a whisper and it's growing into a song
Are you looking for somewhere where you can belong?
Won't you come on over here, we got something going onThis is how it begins, with a smile, with an inch
Take a mile then again, what's another little sinIf I walk through my whole life
Choosing the safe side and staying smart
(Don't you know)I'll miss out on the real thing, it's all or it's nothing
That's why it hurts
(They go)
What good is an unbreakable heart?If I walk through my whole life choosing the safe side
Then what do you know
(What good is an unbreakable heart)
I'll miss out on the real thing it's all or it's nothing
There you go
(What good is an unbreakable heart)If I walk through my whole life, choosing the safe side
Then what do you know
(What good is an unbreakable heart)
I'll miss out on the real thing
It's all or it's nothingThen again
What's another little sinIf I walk through my whole life
Choosing the safe side
And staying smart
(Don't you know)I'll miss out on the real thing
It's all or it's nothing
That's why it hurts
(They go)
What good is an unbreakable heart

What good is an unbreakable heart

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/