Sin

Melan!

He had an unfamiliar face
Complete life in disarray
A simple man, power drunk
No worries of living, no more anything
Deep inside, I've seen it rise
Actions progress but to no end
Mirror, mirror, please look inside
Do you see the reasons that we sin?
I'm not one to be forgot
Spoiled rotten, so they say
Once burned, forever marked
Hurt by just a few but so many have to pay
Deep inside, oh, I've seen it rise
Actions progress but to no end
Mirror, mirror, please look inside
Do you see the reasons that we sin?
Pressure coming down
Down on me, gonna break
Broken fingernails
Digging in, scratch my face
Nervous like a cat
Gonna jump through my skin
Shadows on the wall
Stretching out and grope for me
Deep in me, let me be
Let me bleed, set me free
Set me free, set me free
Set me free, the reasons that we sin
