

That Was Yesterday

Nowherebound

That Was Yesterday

There's something in a full moon, that keeps me awake at night
So I'll serenade the ceiling with old gunfighter ballads
Where the hero gets the girl.

There's something in the air here, something that I can't quite place
And it's nothing malleable, just a memory or emotion
And I love the smell but I can't stand the taste!

I used to be somebody else
I used to be so goddamned brave
Nothing could break my heart
Well that was yesterday! that was yesterday!

There's something 'bout this bar scene, that keeps me out all night
And all my friends they act concerned, my candle's all but burned,
Am I burning out?

And I'm wondering if you're wondering, if I'm coming by tonight
Well just to give you a fair warning, I have been sinking
Into the deepest shades of blue!

I used to be somebody else
I used to be so goddamned brave
Nothing could break my heart
Well that was yesterday! that was yesterday!

Tomorrow I'll wake up in some other part of town, sleeping on someone else's couch
Living in someone else's dream!

This isn't like me, this isn't like me
This ain't how it's supposed to be!
This isn't like me, this isn't like me
This ain't how it's supposed to be!
This isn't like me, this isn't like me
This ain't how it's supposed to be!
This isn't like me, this isn't like me
I used to be somebody else!

Lyrics Submitted by Charles Everson Crowe

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>