Reverence Lost

Misery Signals

My eyes eclipse as these stars constrict
And swallow me whole
Dislocate with your pretentious hands
Reciprocate through seeds of change
Deviate with feet of innocence, perceived through premonition
Times have changed
But still these words, your words remainMy eyes eclipse
Now I'm reduced to holding onto every regret
And the night sky has taken hold of me
Through clouds so black
A silhouette projects catastrophe
Your sky will fallFugitive night, the dawn will break
As true paths are rarely unveiled by means of shadows cast
This is the only way for me to reach behind this facadeDissonance, unstable frequencies
Reiterate through sleight of hand
Corrosion, conviction slips away
Pereived through premonition
Time have changed
But still these words, your words remainWith the night sky, you've lost your hold on me
Your hands so black
A silhouette projects catastrophe
Your sky will fallTake the tragedy you've earned
Asphyxiate-Suffocate
