Sunny Days

Eso

It's a Sunny Day
No stormy weather
There's a place in the clouds
I escape from the crowdLet's fly away
No more pressure
Don't get trapped in your fears
Just be happy you're hereYeah, Yo
You can bet your bottom dollar
That I am happy go lucky
I am so on another level
They can't actually touch me
Relax and get comfy
I'm kicking back where it's sunny
Trying to teach them not to believe in just a sack full of money
Cause that's a back full of monkeys and we don't live like that
Using positive knowledge is how I spit my raps
So I'mma praise the gift and blaze my spliff
Thank the gods that we get to live days like this
It's a Sunny Day
No stormy weather
There's a place in the clouds
I escape from the crowdLet's fly away
No more pressure
Don't get trapped in your fears
Just be happy you're hereYeah, see every day I'm a shine
I'm a dreamer for the cause, this was made by design
I can beat 'em with the force
I know that there's days that got you feelin' like shit
But just know that those days lead to a feeling like this
And I shit not, this hip-hop, it saved my life
Showed me that paradise is simply just a state of mind
Now I'm - on point like the head on Lisa Simpson
With a long joint, pimpin' like I'm Peter Griffin
And they wanna know why I never give-up
It's because I'm down with Mother Earth, and we're majestic as fuck
So I'mma praise the gift and raise my fist
And thank the gods that we get to live days like this
It's a Sunny Day
No stormy weather

There's a place in the clouds
I escape from the crowdLet's fly away
No more pressure
Don't get trapped in your fears
Just be happy you're hereI can see it all with my third eye
(Scratches)
The whole world's trying to sing along
(Scratches)
I can see it all with my third eye
(Scratches)Yeah, Yo
I'm on my Peter Pan shit, moonstruck by the sound
Feeling like I'm rich, bitch, with two bucks from the couch
I'm that red eye, Jedi, like Chubukka's my pal
I keep on ducking and bumping to the apocalypse now
And I'm here to let you know that there's gon' be a brighter day
Despite whatever holds you back, you gon' be free to fly away
So just raise your fist and praise the gift
And thank the gods that we get to live days like thisIt's a Sunny Day
No stormy weather
There's a place in the clouds
I escape from the crowdLet's fly away
No more pressure
Don't get trapped in your fears
Just be happy you're hereIt's a Sunny Day
No stormy weather
There's a place in the clouds
I escape from the crowdLet's fly away
No more pressure
Don't get trapped in your fears
Just be happy you're here
