Goodbyes

JamisonParker

Sidewalks and street lights
You're clutching your suitcase
I'm fighting with broken eyes
We'll take the long way homeYour kisses and goodbyes are leaving my lips numb
I'm jealous of head lights
'cause they're all that clings to youI pray that our shoes
melt in the pavement
We step back slowly and I'll take the long way homeJust one more time
They'll be playing our song
(Repeat x 2)Sidewalks and street lights
You're clutching your suitcase
I'm fighting with broken eyes
We'll take the long way homeJust one more time
They'll be playing our song
(Repeat x 2)
