Together We're Lost

Erika Norberg

Can't you see
When you look in my eyes
Don't you feel, that something is wrong
Yes it seems, like I live on a lie
And babe I don't wanna go on

Every day, I'm hurting you more
Every night, you're making me cry
You must know, that it's not like before

Still, I pretend to love you
I pretend to need you
I pretend to want you
But I know in my heart
(But I know in my heart)
That we slowly are drifting apart

The ground is trembling
The skies are falling
Time for departure
But together we're lost
(We're lost)
So don't you follow
I must pay whatever it costs

For you love, I gave you my heart
For my touch, you sold your soul
Now I know, I was making you stuck

Still, I pretend to love you
I pretend to need you
I pretend to want you
But I know in my heart
(But I know in my heart)
That we slowly are drifting apart

The ground is trembling
The skies are falling
Time for departure
But together we're lost

(We're lost)
So don't you follow
I must pay whatever it costs

You must find your own way
The road that I walk
It will lead you astray

The ground is trembling
The skies are falling
Time for departure
But together we're lost
(We're lost)
So don't you follow
(No don't you follow)
Time for departure

Together we're lost
Together we're lost

Together we're lost
