Tragedian

We ride in search of,our destined path
A journey scared by,hate and wrath
Our vision so bright,pulled by the killing hand
Curse of damnation,blood on the sandWe search the key to break the spell of the night
As we enchant the midnight sun will risewe look up to the sky, see the angels cry, set them freeWalk on your own road of eternal supreme Hold on,ride on,waves of emotional dreams
Break down these walls and live out visions forseen
Hold on,ride on,waves of emotional dreamsWe got to survive,as the hours pass
At the strike of midnight ,the spell was cast
The wizard laughs as he,looks into his glass
The rainbow colors,are fading fastWe search the key to break the spell of the night
As we enchant the midnight sun will risewe look up to the sky, see the angels cry, set them freewe look up to the sky,
see the angels cry, set them freeWalk on your own road of eternal supreme
Hold on,ride on,waves of emotional dreams
Break down these walls and live out visions forseen
Hold on,ride on,waves of emotional dreams
