The Promise (feat. Stephanie Owen)

Brandon Owen

I have run a rocky course
Full of lies and all things worse
You've accepted me today
You've taken all my sins away
I won't turn back to the old path
I will live a righteous life
I will follow you example
Love and mercy fill my life
My sins were numerous, and i could have careless
But a voice inside of me
Told me how to be set free

And the promise of redemption still is ringing in my ears
Your love is overwhelming
And it sets my spirit free
My love an honor is never enough
The gift that you gave caused great love

Why you love me is a mystery
I don't understand your ways
But my footsteps will match your steps
Our paths will be the same.
