

Someday

Black Eyed Peas

I don't want it someday
I don't want it one day
Gotta have it somehow
I want it right now I don't want it someday
I don't want it one day
Gotta have it somehow
I want it right now I wanna live my life, live it to the someday Live it in the light, let that sunshine come in
I can't wait no longer, I can't wait for someday
Always Getting stronger, one day baby one day
I'm gonna live my life and live it in all it's gonna be so awesome blossom and beautiful I'm gonna be with you, baby, and you gonna be with me
I gotta have a?...
Then wait up right now
Baby have a sit
And wait here patiently For the Someday. waiting for the one day.
Hoping for the somehow to have it right now. Cuz I don't want it someday
I don't want it one day
Gotta have it somehow
I want it right now Baby you got me feeling wonderful
I can't believe that you're so wonderful
This is wonderful you're the one my only wonderful
Your past is history, future a mystery.
Today is a precious gift that's why it's called present.
I'll give it all to you, cuz people want it too.
Let's not be scared to have a little taste of heaven. Cuz I don't wanna live my life with no reason at all
I'm stumbling onto love and lovin' the fall
Cuz I wanna be with you, baby, and you wanna be with me.
I gotta have a?...
Then wait up right now
Baby have a sit
And wait here patiently
