While You Were Sleeping

Jill Sobule

While you were sleeping
Everything changed
Like a prisoner on his first day out
Everything changedFashions are strange
The sunlight is blinding
While you were hiding
Everything changedWhile you were sleeping
I got along
As much as I missed you
I got alongNow that you're gone
Feel I've grown two inches
And while you were sleeping
Everything changedDon't you know that you are losing me?
Wish that you could just
Wake up ad see
You are losing me, ohFashions are strange
The sunlight is blinding
While you were hiding
Everything changed
