In A Real Love

Vassar, Phil

Well, I was 18, makin' minimum wage
With a Letterman jacket and a Chevrolet
I thought I was cool, yeah
I ruled the schoolYou were Cum Laude with the strawberry lips
You had the whole world danglin' at your fingertips
Your senior year
An' I was your daddy's worst fearWe ran off on graduation night
Thought a couple of left hand rings
Would make everything all rightWith a little bit a-live, little bit a-learn
Little bit a-watchin' a few more candles burn
And findin' out what life wasOoh, with a little bit a-fuss, little bit a-fight
Little bit a-kiss and makin' up all night
An' one day wakin' up, oh in a real love, yeah, that's rightWell, I was 22, workin' double overtime
I was spendin' dollars an' makin' dimes
We were overdrawn
An' barely hangin' onAn' then one night you came to me
With tears in your eyes and a E P T and said
"Guess what? yeah
Baby ready or not?"Well, I just smiled but I was scared to death
How am I gonna' have a kid
When I'm still a kid myselfWith a little bit a-live, little bit a-learn
Little bit a-watchin' a few more candles burn
And findin' out what life wasOoh, with a little bit a-fuss, little bit a-fight
Little bit a-kiss and makin' up all night
An' one day, wakin' up, oh, in a real love
Oh in a real love, yeah, it's a real loveWith a little bit a-live, little bit a-learn
Little bit a-watchin' a few more candles burn
And findin' out what life wasWith a little bit a-fuss, little bit a-fight
Little bit a-kiss and makin' up all night
An' one day, wakin' up, oh, in a real love
Yeah, baby, it's a real love, yeah, it's a real love, babyOh it's a real, real, real, real, real, real, real love
Yeah, that's right
