Cubicles and Tylenol

Scythian

You wear your mask
I'll wear mine
They don't come cheap
But they fit just fine
You can be her
And I can be him
And we can go sink
When the rest all swimLittle by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by all day longAnd we can pretend
That our fates were entwined
The beautiful lie
Is the beautiful kind
And everybody knows
That the sun still sets
And everybody gives
And everybody getsLittle by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by all day long
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by all day longI can be the one
That you just can't shake
Till you swear that
Your eyes go blind
We can disappear
Till the sun wears a hole

In the life that we left
Behind
And I just won't stop
Till my heart gives way
And you and I
Are a long lost myth
There's nothing very much
I wouldn't to be the last
Of the men that you romance with
Last of the men that you
Romance with.Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
All day long
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little by little by
Little
Little by little by
Little by little byLittle by all day long
You wear your mask
I'll wear mine
They don't come cheap
But they fit just fine
We can pretend
That our fates were entwined
The beautiful lie
