Shelly the Maid

Pretty Maids

Don't ever think you have paid for the last love by Shelly the Maid she'll give you all her loving aid when you need a warm bed - Shelly the MaidChorus: Shelly with her belly filled with joy she knows how to treat her boy she'll give you anything right she won't leave you in the night 'cause she knows when there's money in sightYou'll never see her pale she'll wear purple red on her toe nail you don't ever have to be afraid who'll never let you down - Shelly the Maid
