The End

Ellie Goulding

We've only ever kissed lying down we've only ever touched when there's no one else around i can be elusive if you want me to I'm not being intrusive i just wish i knew the truthAs to why i wait for you longer than the average person will and why i think about you more than i think one shouldour bodies fit together like a makeshift puzzle and its its clear to see, why you puzzle me when you turn your frame and you whisper my name as though i am a burden'cos im making up for last time and im making up for you and im waking up from last night and im waking up with you so whats new?
so whats new?I am at your house so i belong to you for now trying to impress you but lord i don't know how I can be a statue if you want me to im not being difficult i just need to know the truthas to why im wanting you and i would take you away if i could and why i'm still here its something i still haven't understoodour hand press together like pieces of paper but they're always blank when i hold your hand and it gave you a fright when i stayed the night
'cos gave yourself to me'cos im making up for last time
so whats new?
so whats new?it's not the end it's not the end So don't, let's pretend'cos im making up for last time and im making up for you and im making up for last time and im making up for you so whats new?
so whats new?
