Lied to You

drumfish

I lied to you
You lied to meI dont believe in virtue
Or the things that people have to say
Or the things that swell inside you
Its just the same old thing said another waySo how am I supposed to love you
I dont know
It seems to me theres nothing left
It seems I have to live without you
I didnt want toI lied to you
You lied to meI dont believe I told you
That my hands are hanging by my side
That my head is bowed below you
That my knees are touching to the groundAnd I ask because I need to Its hard to do but Askings all that I have left
It seems I have to live without you
I didnt want to
