Always I

Pale Saints

Wanted to pin things down but not fake it
Rather not hear what I have to say
I've got to sayIt's not easy to keep up the invention
Don't wanna hide what I have to feel
I've got to feelI
My I
Always I, IWanted to see this through
Can I face it?
Now I'm too tired to hideIt's easy to give up the attentions
Of lucid time though I'd
Learn to see it had to beI
My I
Always I, IAlways I
Always I
Always I
Always I
