Keep On Giving Me Love

Whitesnake

Oh, you told me you were burned by holy water
And the priest forgot the words, he was trying to say
It seems your best friend is your own reflection
And no promise of love is gonna make you wanna stay
I don't mind, you can think it over slow and tell me what you find
I'm marking time, if you got love to give, baby, I don't mind
Keep on giving me loving, yeah
Keep on giving me loving, yeah
Keep on giving me loving, oh yeah
Keep on giving me love
You got fox eyes, they burn like a sunrise
You got a walk that makes a man's blood turn to wine
You bought and sold me for you lover
As long as you feed me good, baby, I don't mind
I don't mind, you can think it over slow and tell me what you find
I'm marking time, if you got love to give, baby, I don't mind
Keep on giving me loving, yeah
Keep on giving me loving,
Keep on giving me loving, yeah
Keep on giving me love, oh love
So you told me you were burned by holy water
And the priest forgot the words, he was trying to say
It seems your best friend is your own reflection
And no promise of love is gonna make you wanna stay
I don't mind, you can think it over slow and tell me what you find
I'm marking time, if you got love to give, baby, I don't mind
Keep on giving me loving
Keep on giving me loving
Keep on giving me loving, oh yeah
Keep on giving me love, love
