Tsunami

Bruno M

So I'm here alone again
I was wondering
If you think I'm a mess
What is the point of this?Did I miss it, was going wrong
And it had been this bad for so long
When you place the blame
Well it's such a shame
When you act this way
So what's the point of this?Tsunami all in front of me
Sit alone with a brew sky for the changes in the airI'm here alone again
I was wondering
If you think I'm a mess
What is the point of this?Well I think I'm clear but until we get there
We gotta work through the fear
Well I know it's rough when you must confront
All the stuff you can bluffBut I'm not here to impress you with fakeness
I thought that this was real assumed too much
What is the point of this?Well it's worse than it is and I hope I'm right
Because this I will missBut if we push on through then we can prove
There is too much to lose
So what's the point of this?Tsunami all in front of me
Sit alone with a brew sky for the changes in the air
It's around me, it's all I wanna be
I'll carry on now maybe not that far to goI'm still waiting, watching, almost sleeping
Lonely hurting, hope I'm keeping
I run falling over
Here comes that Tsunami againHere alone again
I was wondering if you think I'm a mess
I'm not here to impress you with fakeness
I thought that this was real assumed too much
What is the point of this?Tsunami all in front of me
Sit alone with a brew sky for the changes, in the air
It's around me, it's all I wanna be
I'll carry on now maybe not that far to go now [Incomprehensible]Tsunami all in front of me
Sit alone with a brew sky for the changes, in the airI'm here alone again
I was wondering if you think I'm a mess
What is the point of this?Did I miss it, was going wrong
And it had been this bad for so long
When you place the blame

Well it's such a shame
When you act this way
So what's the point of this?
Tsunami all in front of me
