Haul Away

78 Saab

Was a windless night
When you left the ship
You never were
A steady bold one
I gave my hand
Ah but you did slipI'm a living man
And your a cold one
So haul away
Haul away from hereMy love's as fair
As a girl can be
My wedding ring
Is a heavy gold one
Now you lay alone
In the deep dark sea
I'm a living man
And your a cold one
So haul away
Haul away for homeThe morning brings
Lord a fresh young breeze
To fill our sails
To end the doldrums
Our lucky ship
Speeds across the sea
I'm a living man
And your a cold one
So haul away
Haul away for home
