Down the Drain

Marcy Playground

I'm staring down the drain
Of the sink in the bathroom, oh
In a cloud of pure cocaine
And I think what have I done, oh
If you ignore me, I swear I'll go insaneSo kiss me like before the madness started
And hug me like before our love departed
Oh angel, do you wish we never startedI wish you could be my girl again
That's all I ever wanted
Oh, you could be my girl
I only ever wanted youYeah, you could be my girl again
That's all I ever wanted
And to God I swear
Oh God, I swear it's true
