To The Pacific

Sever Your Ties

Read into it however you read into something
That you dont understand
Listen to what you want, it's okay
Theres nothing I can do or want toWe fall into some dark places
We fall into something unreal
We love the ones who carry
We love the ones who feelI felt the ways of the world
And Ive seen the look upon your face
The look and feel of disgust, it's okay
Theres something we can do or want toIm waiting for you
Theres a road and it's paved with goldWe fall into some dark places
We fall into something unreal
We love the ones who carry
We love the ones who feelRead into it however you read into something
That you dont understand
Listen to what you want, it's okay
Theres nothing I can do or want to
