The Districts

I ohh
Well I don't know where I'm going
And I don't know where I amAnd I
It's a shame I don't know who I am
But by now you might think I canAnd I don't want to be something that I'm not
And I don't want to be a different man
And I don't want to say something to make you leave but I will
I will tell by the look on your face
And I will tell by the words that you say
And I will tell by the look on your face if I'm wrong
I ohh
Well I don't know what I paid for
And I want my money backAnd I ohh
Didn't know thins was part of the bargain
Ohh no
It's like I'm biting off more than I could digestAnd I don't want to be something that you need
And I don't want to be just a memory
And I don't want to be something you come to regret but I will
I will
I will tell by the look on your face
And I will tell by the words that you say
And I will tell by the look on your face if I'm wrong
I will tell by the look on your face
And I will tell by the words that you say
And I will tell by the look on your face if I'm wrong
I will tell by, I will tell
I will tell by the look on your face
I will tell by the look on your face if I'm wrong
I will tell by, I will tell
I will tell by the look on your face
I will tell by the look on your face if I'm wrong
