Everybody's Gotta Go Sometime

Terri Clark

They've been together now for eighteen years
And every growin' pain has led them here
She's packed up that last box in her old Chevrolet
Her mama says Tennessee seems so far away
And it's the first time she's seen her daddy cryBut everybody's gotta go sometime
Everybody's gotta cross that line
Even though goodbye won't come easyLeave a little bit of love behind
It takes a lot of faith to find
The strength to walk away freely
Everybody's gotta go sometimeHe found the love note in the dresser drawer
Right then he forgot what he was looking for
A decade of trust just went down the drain
She choked on her words when she tried to explain
And as he walked away, she begged him to stayBut everybody's gotta go sometime
Everybody's gotta cross that line
Even though goodbye won't come easyLeave a little bit of love behind
It takes a lot of faith to find
The strength to walk away freely
Everybody's gotta go sometimeAll we really know for sure
Is nothing stays the same
Don't be frightened
By the winds of changeEverybody's gotta go sometime
Everybody's gotta cross that line
Even though goodbye won't come easyLeave a little bit of love behind
It takes a lot of faith to find
The strength to walk away freely
Everybody's gotta go sometimeEverybody's gotta go sometime
Everybody's gotta go sometime
