Somebody for Someone

The Corrs

There's a deep girl in the corner shop
Selling sugar for money in the dead of the night
And her soul's in the sugar, and her heart's in the mud
And she crying with a stranger for someone to love
And she singsLook at me, see me
Look at me, save me
Free me, find me
'Cause if there's somebody for someone
Yeah, look at me, somebody for someoneThere's a deep boy at the corner shop
Watching sugar sell for money to the dead at night
And he sees in her an angel in the cruelest of worlds
Hiding in the darkness, screamin' out for love
And he singsLook at me, see me
Look for me, save me
Free me, find me
'Cause if there's somebody for someone
Yeah, look at meSomebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it rightSomebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it right
Somebody's gonna make it rightLook at me, see me
Look for me, save me
Free me, find me
'Cause if there's somebody for someone
Come look at me, yesSomebody for someone
Hey yeah, I wanna be
Somebody for someone
I know there's gotta beSomebody for someone
You've gotta be
Somebody for someone
Hey yeah heySomebody for someone
Somebody for someone
Somebody for someone
