Monday, Monday dreaming oh, it always ends the same
You ache for Saturday but you cant reach
If I found you lonesome for someone youve never met
You havent found her yet would that be me?Chorus 1:
Would you miss me today if I met you tomorrow?
If I met you tomorrow? Would you miss me?Verse 2:
Youre homesick for a place youve never been-
Ill take you there; yes I will take you there in strangers skin
Oh, the road that leads to morrow limitless and wide
So keep an open mind and let me inChorus 2:
Would you miss me today if I met you tomorrow?
If I met you tomorrow? Would you miss me?
Would you know that you need me before I said hello?
Hello? If I met you tomorrow, would you miss me?Bridge:
Wait for it, Wait for it, Wait for it, youll be glad you didVerse 3:
I know you kiss the back of your hand like it was my face
You hold your pillow like my waist; just put me in their place
