

The One-Eyed King

Ashes Of Ares

All who stand before me now
Believe in what I say
I'm the one to which you owe
Each and every day I'm a modern demi-god
Cult of personality
If you're not dead, I'm in your head
I am the one-eyed king I am the one-eyed king
I'm creating everything
All you know, all you believe
Won't exist without me
The one-eyed king
(The one-eyed king) Blind, blind you're all blind
Swimming in my pool of lies
I control all that you know
And never dared deny
Black is white... right is wrong
The devil sings an angel's song
Whispered sweet into your ear
Mine to love, yours to fear
I am the one-eyed king
I'm creating everything
All you know, all you believe
Won't exist without me
I am the one-eyed king
I'm creating everything
All you know
All you believe
Won't exist without me
The one-eyed king
