Backing Up

The Elwins

I did what I had to do
Felt bad, but I saw it through
Told you I couldn't go anymore
Now I sit behind a closed doorI'm not sure of anything
I'm not sure at all
I can't tell just what I think
I'm not sure at allEverything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reel
Everything's backing up
Tryna stop a rolling wheel
But I'm frozen, stuck in time
and there ain't nothin I can do
Everything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reelSinking fast like a fallen stone Diving deep from the place I've thrown Should I float? Or should I learn to swim?
In the light, but it all seems dimI'm not sure of anything
I'm not sure at all
I can't tell just what I think
I'm not sure at allEverything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reel
Everything's backing up
Tryna stop a rolling wheel
But I'm frozen, stuck in time
and there ain't nothin I can do
Everything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reelEverything's backing up
Up up up up up up
Everything's backing up
Up up up up up upOnly time will tell
If I made the right choice
With decisions I voice
Broken hearts will mend
I think we'll both find love again
But will I be with you in the end, the end?Everything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reel
Everything's backing up
Tryna stop a rolling wheel
But I'm frozen, stuck in time

and there ain't nothin I can do
Everything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reelEverything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reel
Everything's backing up
Tryna stop a rolling wheel
But I'm frozen, stuck in time
and there ain't nothin I can do
Everything's backing up
Frowning, rewind on the reelEverything's backing up
Up up up up up up
Everything's backing up
Up up up up up upI did what I had to do
Felt bad, but I saw it through
