In Trance

0 and Below

I wake up in the morning
And the sun begins to shine
The day did sneak up on the nightI see your face, see myself
And I get a little taste of life
I try to stand it for a whileBut I'm in a trance
Hey baby, tell me can't you hear me calling?
I'm in a trance
I take too much in the Saturday nightHey, hey
Hey baby, tell me can't you hear me calling?
I'm in a trance
I wanna try to stop this lifeI feel so sad, I'm feeling down
On the radio the music plays
I'm in love with her and I feel fine, yeahI close my eyes, I think today
It's getting better with a sip of wine
And I can stand it for a whileBut I'm in a trance
Hey baby, tell me can't you hear me calling?
I'm in a trance
I take too much in the Saturday nightHey, hey
Hey baby, tell me can't you hear me calling?
I'm in a trance
I wanna try to stop this life
