Disappearing

Dan Wilson

Verse:
I had a dream about you
Real as my own hand
We were side by side while the boats rolled by,
By the bright summer sandI had to cry when I woke up,
For life is truly cruel
And cruelest to those who love
And who can't stay true.Chorus:
Some nights
I feel like I'm watching your red tail lights
Disappearing
Some nights
I feel like watching your red tail lights
DisappearingOh-oh-oh x2Verse 2:
I could see the future out so far
Like the county fair balloon
Red and rising in a blue, blue sky
Until there's only blueYou might be a fool for your love
She may rule your every move
But if you let her slip away from you
You might be nothing but a fool.Oh-oh-ohChorus:
Some nights
I feel like I'm watching your red tail lights
Disappearing
Some nights
I feel like I'm watching your red tail lights
DisappearingSome nights I feel like
Disappearing x2
