Without Your Love

Ellie Goulding

Sooner or later I'll be heading home
Sooner or later I'll be on my own
Tune into center, I'll wear out my shoes
Tune into someone got nothing to loseWithout your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereMove in the sun 'til I burn all my tires
Maybe they're scratching the watery eyes
I think I've been waiting for this all my life
Flourish the kisses left frozen in timeWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhereWithout your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
Without your love I'm getting somewhere
