Lost In the Flames

Shattersphere

No God can save you nowMy God, I have no faith
I'm stuck in this fucked up place
(My son, I'm right here next to you)
I try to live and learn
But I still feel the burn
(My son, I'm here for you...)I've spread my love and all my faith
I've done it all in seven days
I never thought it would be this way
And I'm still bleedingSo I fall down to pray
But I think I've lost my page
(My son, it's lost in the flames)Lost in the hands of timeHands of time take me away to where I want to be
Lead the way because I can't see the life in me
I was lost in the flames as I screamedMy God, I've failed again
I wait for your crushing hand
(My son, I'm afraid it's too late)Is this for real?Save me now
