Nobody Lives Without Love

Eddi Reader

Seems like I've gone off the side of a mountain couldn't be sure I was even alive fallen from the icy heights landed with a broken cry in this valley of shadow and sorrow and sighs can you save me baby?Nobody lives without love nobody gets to give up
you can try to lock your heart away but love will come back for you some day nobody lives without loveThought I could live my life as a stranger hide from the heartbreak that love always brings make it to the higher ground and try to turn the volume down couldn't stop the sirens from singing sing for me babyNobody lives without love
nobody gets to give up
nobody lives without loveYou came along like a flash of your like lightning crashed into my life like a runaway star feels like I'm falling in gravity's action and I'm standing here offering a stranger my heartYou can even lock your heart away but love will come back for it some day
nobody lives without love
(nobody lives without love)
(nobody lives without love)
(nobody lives without love)
seems like I've gone off the side of the mountain (nobody lives without love) couldn't be sure if I was even alive (nobody lives without love) thought I could live my life as a stranger hide from the heartbreak of love always brings...
(nobody lives without love)
