New Dawn

Steve Forte Rio

Jesus I will follow You
For each step is forgiving and never alone
As we walk through miles of disbelief
You will be his and I'll guide you leading you homeYou say, you carry on
A new day will come, I know it will, yeah
You carry on, I know, I know
A new day will dawn, yes it willI am a woman
A mountain I will climb, oh yes, I will
Oh, I've been beat down and I've been broken
But each day I give it another try, oh yeahWe will carry on
A new day has come, mmm yeah
We will carry on, I know
A new day will dawnOoh yeah
I've been broken, yeah
Mmm yeah
New day will dawn, yeah
Ooh yeahWe will carry on, yes it will
A new day will come
We'll carry on, carry on, carry on, a new day
A new day will dawn, yeahWe will carry on
A new day will come, I am a woman
We'll carry on, a new day
A new day will dawn
Mmm, new day will dawn
