Wounds

Deltaville

When a day comes along, Feed it, make it go away, I can feed it, make it go away, And it's all the same, Seeing everything again, I am seeing everything again, My own stupid fantasy, I can drink it and wash it all away, Drink it, wash it all away, And I don't need to breathe, Because I'm tasting everything again, Tasting, You know we hate it all in here, You know we hate it all in here, Because the times that we have are so hard, You know we hate it all, I just swim through my aquarium, My life feels 2D, Swim through my aquarium, Licking all my wounds, I don't want to be in this life, I'm bleeding eternally for you, Bleeding, Because the times that I have make me throw it all away, Slave to my addiction, Close my eye's and meditate my death, The wound has left a scar, Have I anything left? But I still breathe just to be with you, Still breathe, I don't want to be in this life. I don't want to be in this life, Because the times that I have make me throw it all away, [Thanks to MarkLinkin@hotmail.com for these lyrics]
