Tolerate

Floorpunch

I just can't tolerate all the shit I see
The kids nowadays don't believe in unity
Too many factions in this HC crowd
Everyone's a hard-ass, and think they've been around
The dancing, the styles
Everything has changed
It's time to look around and rearrange
This isn't the way it's supposed to be done
After all the movement was started for fun
It's all about the kids who really care
Not how many colors you can dye your hair
