Cold

Freakhouse

pain x3i was dying
so you broke the glass
im still breathing
but im fading fast
i was blinded
so you gave me sight
so i could see the lighti was drowning so you pulled me out im still fightin
but im sinking down
i was crawling
so you made me stand so i could live againchorus:theres no where to run
been out here so long
and my feelings are numb
been out in the cold
feelings are gonetheres no where to run
been out in the cold
and my feelings are gone
been out in the cold
feelings are gonepain x3i was haunted but I could not face an addiction
that was in my veins
A confession to make it right so now you see the light
i was choking,
so you gave me air Self destruction but i didnt care i was wounded so you stopped the pain so i could see the waychorus:theres no where to run
been out here so long
been out in the cold
been out in the cold
been out in the cold
