Many Happy Hangovers To You

Jean Shepard

You're goin' out again tonight
And you'll end up gettin' tight
Then when your money's gone
You'll come crawlin' home to meYou'll think you're quiet as a mouse
As you come stumblin' through the house
And find the note with these parting words from me'Many happy hangovers to you
May your life be blessed with more than a few
For our love can never be, you hold the bottle more than me
Many happy hangovers to you'When tomorrow's sun comes up
You'll be sicker than a pup
And your blood shot eyes
Will look around for meBut you'll find yourself alone
Like the many nights I've known
With only lonely walls for company'Many happy hangovers to you
May your life be blessed with more than a few
For our love can never be, you hold the bottle more than me
Many happy hangovers to you'
