Near Miss

Stuck in this room, motivations sunk deep
Outsides a called place, yesterday's thoughts to keep
This world seems like miles away
So follow the joke of hearsay
A moment in caution still we live for todayBut I'll help you and I'll be true
Label your words and thoughts lived through greed
Still you find yourself
Living someone else's dreamStuck in this room, I'm forced to fall asleep
I wish I could leave
And you're never what you seemed
This world seems like awaySo pretend and follow and everything's okay
Still we live for todayBut I'll help you and I'll be true
Label your words and thoughts lived through greed
Still you find yourself
Left only to perceiveThat the world is wasting away
So pretend it's only one day
And to think you'll end up nowhere
It wouldn't be fair and within your ride
No one ever drove, no one ever cared
