New High

Diffuser

My life is fading
Sick and tired of wasting time
And my back is breaking
Underneath all this liesThis feels like second best I'm trapped in false content
My cup is half empty and dripping with envy
Right now I'm feeling that no one's gonna
Help me but myselfI'm looking for a new high, new high
I don't wanna get left behind
I'm looking for a new high, new high
Trying just to get the feeling rightNo motivation
Elevation is hard to find
I'm not impatient
But everyday is a common grindMy head is spinning round I need to straighten out
My cup is half empty but that don't upset me
Right now I'm feeling that no one's gonna
Help me but myselfI'm looking for a new high, new high
I don't wanna get left behind
I'm looking for a new high, new high
Trying just to get the feeling rightToo much of the same routine has held me up (Too much of the same routine has held me up)
But I'm willing to leave the past within the past
(I'm willing to leave it all behind)
I have to believe I've finally had enough
(I need to feel I've got enough)
The first step is the hardest one to makeI'm looking for a new high, new high
I don't wanna get left behind
I'm looking for a new high, new high
Trying just to get the feeling rightI'm looking for a new high, new high
I'm looking for a new high, new high
I'm looking for a new high, new high
Trying just to get the feeling right
To get me through the night
