5000 G

Bodyjar

* * 5000G Trying hard to duplicate the scene You've seen so much in magazines It's not what you decide inside It's what you try to hide You've got a thousand lines You think you're from the U.S.A. It's time to seize the day We've got a problem now Everytime I hear you talking Everytime I see you walking I just need to be someone you believe (x2) Packing knives and picking fights with me You're like an actor saying lines Your big mouth keeps your dignity You're not the star this time 'Cause I won't listen now Because I've heard your shit before It's time to even the score It's time to realize Everytime I hear you talking Everytime I see you walking I just need to be someone you believe (x2) There's a scene to yourself (x8)
