From the Start

Chris Christian

You are my heaven,all is forgiven, and I'm in love with you you put together,my love forever, I will live for you I was in pieces,wrinkled with creases until you came now I live only,simply to worship your name I've waited so long but I saw I was wrong in not in loving you it took me some years and some pain and some tears ,but you pulled me through I've waited so long ,but I see you belong deep down in my heart and I wonder why I didn't love you from the start I was confused and lost in a world wind that was spinning around you stopped the spinning ,gave me a beginning on solid ground now there's a purpose,that's not a service,since I've found you lord I'm yours forever, take me and never let me leave your word now it's all so very clear , why I'm even standing here everything's in black and white ,since I saw your love well I waited so long,but I saw I was wrong in not loving you
it took me some years and some pain and some tears ,but you pulled me through
I've waited so long ,but I see you belong deep down in my heart
But I wonder why I didn't love you from the start
