Denial

The Saturdays

Oh
Yeah-ay-yeah
Mhmm

Letting you go is pretty damn difficult
Cause there was a time I would be for you
What you need for me, I would do what
Whatever to be rolling wit' u
And you know I took it as far as I can go
So I'm a go lay it out right for you
You're not good to me, I know I've been
Blind but I can open my eyes

Cause then I see just what you are
Not for me, I don't why
I wanted you I don't want you
I deny, oh

All that you did and all that you didn't
All that you said and all that you wouldn't
Deny, I deny it
Defy, everything, oh
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it
I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you are
And everything we were, and I

You took your time
Well baby you should take up all of mine
So when I said you should be you don't question me
When I'm telling you, I don't want you
Hiding up my mind anymore

I don't want you, you can go
Leave my keys and close the door
I don't need somebody like you

I deny oh I deny!

All that you did and all that you didn't
All that you said and all that you wouldn't
Deny, I deny it
Defy, everything. oh you were
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it
I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you are
And everything we were, and I

Don't tell me
You never thought that we would come to this Standing here, giving up all that we have been
Whoa! and don't blame me
This is not about what I have done
I've done more, I could do, still we fought
Still you try me, but baby

I deny-I-I!
Woo

All that you did and all that you didn't
All that you said and all that wouldn't
Deny, I deny it
Defy, everything, ohh

I deny it!

All that we were and all that we called up, oh-whoa
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it, woo
I deny everything oh

All that you did and all that you made up
All that you said and all that you wouldn't, whoa-oh-oh
Deny, I deny it woo
Defy, everything oh
All that we were and all that we called up
All that you were and all that you made up
Defy, I defy it

I deny everything you are

And everything we were
And everything you were
And everything we were, and I

Whoa-oh
I deny
