

S.T.O.P

David Guetta

How many stars do you see now?
I must admit, I haven't looked
All of the lives that we live
When we rush and we push 'til we bend, 'til we break
How many days have we lost now?
I must admit, I'm losing count
All of the time that we spend
Tryin'a do what we do 'cause it makes us feel sane
I'll stop right now but I'm stopping with you (Oh)
I'll leave this town, but I'm leaving with you (Oh)
I'm so tired of where we've been,
Life won't start until this ends
I'll stop right now but I'm stopping with you,
I'll stop with you
How many nights has it been now?
I must admit, no keeping count
All of the souls that we meet
In a rush, in a race, trying to find better streets
I'm on my way, on my way, now
I admit, it took its toll
Trading your life for the light
For the night, it ain't right if it's all that you know
I'll stop right now but I'm stopping with you (Oh)
I'll leave this town, but I'm leaving with you (Oh)
I'm so tired of where we've been,
Life won't start until this ends
I'll stop right now but I'm stopping with you,
I'll stop with you
