Hanging from the Ceiling

The Velveteins

Oh darling
Well isn't this just alarming
Oh hey darling hanging from the ceiling
And there's nothing left to say
I'll take a picture
Send it over to your sister
Oh hey darling hanging from the ceiling
And maybe she'll know what to say
Oh it's startling
The way your head hangs on a swivel
You're eyes are smaller than your pupils
Might be more than I can take Well I love to dream about my baby but the band in the moon eyes been sleeping in lately (no idea what he says here)
La la la la la la la la la la
