

Hanging from the Ceiling

The Velveteins

Oh darling
Well isn't this just alarming
Oh hey darling hanging from the ceiling
And there's nothing left to say
I'll take a picture
Send it over to your sister
Oh hey darling hanging from the ceiling
And maybe she'll know what to say
Oh it's startling
The way your head hangs on a swivel
You're eyes are smaller than your pupils
Might be more than I can take Well I love to dream about my baby but the band in the moon eyes been sleeping in lately ( no idea what he says here)
La la la la la la la la la
