More Yours

Jason Gray

MORE YOURS
How many times have I said "You can have my life"?
How many times have I said "You can have it all"?
Just to take it back another time
But You're patient as I'm learning to let go
Little by little,
Bit by bit,
Your Love helps me to loosen my grip
And run into Your open arms againCHORUS
I'm gonna give You my life, my life
As many times does it takes, it takes
And if my heart has to break, to break
Do whatever You need to make
To make me more Yours
I wanna be more Yours, more
I wanna be more YoursHere I am with my heart once again
Here's another piece that I was holding back
As I'm trying to surrender all I am
Little by little, little bit more
I'm closer now, than I was before
As the God of second chances calls my name
CHORUS
I'm gonna give You my life, my life
As many times does it takes, it takes
And if my heart has to break, to break
Do whatever You need to make
To make me more Yours
I wanna be more Yours, more
I wanna be more Yours, more YoursSo I will run to The Love that's making me new
And if I fall, let me fall deeper into You
CHORUS
I'm gonna give You my life, my life
As many times does it takes, it takes
And if my heart has to break, to break
Do whatever You need to make (2x)
...Just make me more Yours
I wanna be more Yours, more (2x)
I wanna be MORE YOURS.
