Whispers

Vic Mensa

Look at me twice with the wildcat eyes
Promise me everythin' except a blue night
Shudder like ice in cut crystal glass
Melt in embraces of crazy eyed past
And whisper
Whisper, whisperin' whispers
Tantamount to a lie with lingerin' breath
Walking fingers run, hungry scratches left
Dull chimes are ringin' like an empty voice
A distant smile framed, her lips are soft and moist
With whisper
Whisper, whisperin' whispers
And whisper in a rhythm your lies
Keep comfort for others, hurt me with the night
Whisper like cold winds close to the bone
Save heaven for lovers, leave me alone
With your whisper
Whisper, whisperin' whispers
With a whisper

Whisper, whisperin' whispers
And whisper in a rhythm your lies
Keep comfort for others, hurt me with the night
Whisper like cold winds close to the bone
Save heaven for lovers, leave me alone
With your whisper
Whisper, whispering'
Whisper in a rhythm your lies
Keep comfort for others, hurt me with the night
Whisper like cold winds close to the bone
Save heaven for lovers, leave me alone
With your whisper
Whisper, whisperin' whispers
With your whisper
With your whisper, aah
Whisperin' whispers
