Tailor Made

Harvard Bass

Twenty five, all of these mixed emotions
Tangled up in pure confusion
It's hard to let go of the past
But it seems easier as time is movin'
Well, you said he makes you laugh
And he makes you happy
He sees you smilin' back
It is everlasting
So, he's tailor made for you
With stunning golden hues
And once we [Incomprehenisble]
The all persistent beating heart
It's just a start
And I, I see in you everyday
Never been like this before
It's tailor made, tailor, tailor made
So, let go all of the mixed emotions
Forget all your hesitations
Together entwined inside this feeling
Your feet off the ground, headed ceilin'
But, then he whispered in your ear
He's absolutely fallen

The words he said are clear
Don't insist on stallin'
Because he's tailor made for you
With stunning golden hues
And once we [Incomprehenisble]
The all persistent beating heart
It's just a start
And I see in you everyday
Never been like this before
Tailor made
Whoa, sister don't be troubled
Whoa, sister please be kind
'Cause this isn't what you're used to at all
He's tailor made for you
With stunning golden hues
And once we [Incomprehenisble]

The all persistent beating heart
It's just a start
And I see in you everyday
You've never been like this before
It's tailor made, tailor, tailor made
