Run Away

Styl-Plus

Surrounded by a thousand eyes
The strangers in the night
A city full of broken hearts
Burning like white light
The streets are filled of promises
You never get to keep
The streets are full of dreamers
Walking in their sleep
You come to me for easy lovin'
Starlight in your eyes
Don't you know it's all or nothin'
Leave before you cry
Run, run away
Run, run away
You never liked what daddy said
He never understands
The heartaches of a little girl
Who needs a magic man
Young hearts chasing images

Along the boulevards
Young hearts lose their innocence
Reaching after stars
You come to me for easy lovin'
Starlight in your eyes
Don't you know it's all or nothin'
Leave before you cry
Yeah
Run, run away
Run, run away
Run away
(Run, run away)
Better run away
(Run, run away)
Better run away
(Run, run away)
Run away, run away
Run away, run away
